ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The Bellows Falls band has discontinued Sunday afternoon concerts at Barber park.

The Rev. J. A. Mitchell, of Wilmington, will begin his pastorate in the Baptist church at West Brattleboro next Sunday.

Charles Wilder, of Fitchburg, Mass., nearly 80 years old, made a trip last week from Fitchburg to Brattleboro on his bicycle, a distance of about sixty miles.

The water supply in Minard pond for the village of Bellows Falls continues to grow less, notwithstanding numerous rains. There is now less than five feet of water on top of the main pipe.

John Hart, of Walpole, N. H., whose left foot was crushed August 23 while he was attempting to get off a moving Rutland train near the station at Bellows Falls, was taken to the Keene, N. H., hospital and a portion of the foot and all the toes but the big one were amputated.

Work was begun on the foundations for the new chair factory at Wilmington August 21, just a year to a day from the date the mill was burned, the loss being $38,000, with insurance of $12,500. The first payment of the stock subscriptions is being collected and it is expected that the mill will be in operating order before January 1.

Judge E. L. Waterman and two daughters, of Brattleboro, together with Miss Alice D. Butterfield, are expected home from Europe this week, as is Miss Ethel Osgood, who has passed the summer in France. Miss Osgood will have charge of the French department in the Trenton, (N. J.) Normal School the term beginning early in September.

One of the largest, if not the largest, hemlock trees in northern Vermont is on the farm in Sansonville formerly owned by the late David M. Perley, but now owned by W. D. McClaffin, of Los Angeles, Cal. Its circumference by actual measurement is 17 feet and 4 inches, two feet from the ground. The tree is a very symmetrical one.

Owing to the critical condition of James Mitchell, who fatally shot Miss Linnie B. Rankin at Grafton a few weeks ago, his trial will be postponed to the April term of Windham county court. As has been told in the Messenger, Mitchell has been taken to Newfane jail and it is thought that he will recover from his self-inflicted wound which caused the loss of his right eye. It is probable that his other eye will also be lost.

Rufus Hutchinson, who has been in poor health for some little time, died Sunday morning at his home in Randolph. Mr. Hutchinson was about 70 years of age, and spent the greater part of his life in Brattleboro. He moved to Randolph from his farm in Peth about 15 years ago. Mr. Hutchinson was twice married and is survived by his wife and two sons, Charles R. Hutchinson of Northampton and John B. Hutchinson of Brattleboro. He was a man who never sought publicity, and was respected by all who knew him.

A young woman who registers at hotels under different names has visited Newport lately and gained some notoriety. At the Newport house she registered as Miss Burton and after having been indicted for the house to the sum of $5, she caused P. E. Haggood, the proprietor, some trouble in getting his pay, enough, indeed, to require the services of the local constable. At another hotel she is said to have registered as Dorothy Mayfield. The business of this woman is ostensibly that of a canvasser who sells chrysalis salts for a Michigan firm.

The Baldwin Refrigerator company has just been notified that its proposal to furnish the United States public health and marine hospital service with refrigerators for their current fiscal year has been accepted, making the 21st consecutive year that this important branch of the government service has adopted the Baldwin dry air refrigerator for use in all its hospitals and quarantine stations. So highly were these refrigerators regarded by the surgeons and stewards as far back as 1884-1885 that one of them was included in the government exhibit at the world's exposition, New Orleans, marked "Standard Refrigerator for hospital use."

George H. Wilder of Montpelier has made arrangements for a series of 24 free concerts in as many different towns during the coming season to be given for the benefit of needy churches. This course will be known as the Wilder charity course and the talent will include ten picked members from the boys' choir of Bethany church of which Mr. Wilder is director and some of his most promising pupils. The towns to be thus favored are Randolph, Waterbury, Worcester, Jonesville, Wells River, Middlesex, Waitsfield, East Montpelier, Plainfield, West Berlin, Williamstown, South Royalton, Ryegate, Barre, Berlin, Northfield, Groton, Granville, Marshfield, Warren, Richmond, Essex Junction and Moretown. These concerts will be nonsectarian and will be given for the benefit of churches most needing financial assistance.

Lucia Eddy, widow of George W. Moody, and for many years an honored resident of Waterbury, passed to her eternal reward at 12:15 a. m. Sunday morning, after several weeks of illness. Mrs. Moody was the daughter of Capt. William Eddy and Jane Smith Eddy, the fifth of 13 children, and born in Waterbury May 8, 1822. She was united in marriage to George W. Moody on Dec. 7, 1843, by the Rev. J. P. Hall. This union was broken by the death of Mr. Moody on June 9, 1890. For many years their home was in the central part of the town, from which they removed from Waterbury village in March 1899. She was the mother of 11 children, five of whom survive her, George Eugene, Edwin B., Sarah E. (Mrs. William Carpenter), Calvin B. Moody, D. D., pastor of the Congregational church, Brattleboro, and Nettie E., who, giving up her position as a successful teacher, has faithfully cared for her mother in her declining years. Emma died October 10, 1872. Euphrasia L., the oldest daughter, lived with her mother after the death of the father until her death, December 5, 1897.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Gave Himself Up to Officers.

Papers in a case which is somewhat out of the ordinary came to the office of United States Marshal Horace W. Bailey in Rutland Saturday. The respondent, J. W. Niles, of Albany, was indicted at the May term of federal court for smuggling a horse and cow into Vermont over the Canadian border. A capias for Niles was placed in the hands of Deputy Marshal Thomas Reeves, of Burlington, soon after but the accused had gone back to Canada and the officer could not get him. August 24, Niles, with an attorney, went of his own accord to the office of George E. Johnson, of Burlington, clerk of the federal court in Vermont, and gave bail to appear when wanted. Marshal Bailey says this is the first instance of the kind that ever came to his notice.

Gold in Wilmington.

Eliasz Pellerin of Woodford claims to have made a gold strike on his land in that town that will make the world sit up and take notice. Mr. Pellerin has long been convinced that there was pay ore on his property and he has spent the larger part of the summer prospecting. He has one shaft that is down 30 feet and declares that he has struck a bonanza vein. He isn't giving out the extent of the assay, but tells of some big offers that he says he has received for his property in whole or in part. There is no record at the town clerk's office of any sale of claims by Mr. Pellerin.

Panther or Bob Cat.

Some wild animal is frightening people of Newark. Some say it is a panther and others a bob cat. It has been seen several times and heard by many.

Peculiar Disappearance.

J. D. Runyan of Buttrickville O., laid the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms of indigestion and biliousness to Dr. King's New Life Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store. Price 25c.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

ESTATE OF EMMA M. PARKER.
The undersigned, having been appointed by the Hon. Probate Court for the district of Washington Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Emma M.
